MEMORANDUM CIRCULAR
No. 2005 - 37

To : ALL CITY/MUNICIPAL MAYORS, PUNONG BARANGAYS, SK CITY/MUNICIPAL FEDERATION PRESIDENTS, DILG REGIONAL AND FIELD OFFICERS, AND ALL OTHERS CONCERNED

Subject : CONDUCT OF THE WORKSHOP ON ECO-TOURISM DEVELOPMENT AND DISASTER PREPAREDNESS FOR THE YOUTH: "TAYO NA SA LIGTAS AT MAGANDANG PILIPINAS"

The Sangguniang Kabataan National Federation (SKNF), in collaboration with the National Movement of Young Legislators (NMYL), will conduct a workshop on Eco-Tourism Development and Disaster Preparedness for the Youth, dubbed as "Tayo na sa Ligtas at Magandang Pilipinas", in two (2) different venues and nuances: Casa Pilar in Boracay, Malay, Aklan on May 3-5, 2005, and Baguio City on May 24-26, 2005.

This activity aims to inform and reinforce good citizenship among the youth especially on their significant role in eco-tourism development and disaster preparedness. In the long term, the workshop aims to inspire the youth to conduct research and maintain relevant infrastructure for sustainable disaster preparedness and eco-tourism in their respective communities; and to ensure the effective and efficient discharge of duties and functions by the Green Brigade per E.O. 52, s 1998, and the SK Disaster Coordination and Health Task Force per Article XVIII, Sec. 1(3) of the SK Constitution and By-Laws.

As part of the SKNF's continuing commitment to provide relevant trainings to the Sangguniang Kabataan, the following are encouraged to attend the activity:

1. The Vice-Presidents of the City/Municipal SK Federation, as chairmen of the City/Municipal Green Brigade Federations; and
2. The 3rd SK Kagawad designated as Chairman of the Disaster Coordination and Health Taskforce, to represent the city/municipality, who shall be chosen by the SK City/Municipal Federation President from among the 3rd SK Kagawads of the barangays within the city/municipality.

In observance of current austerity measures, target participants shall attend the workshop as follows:
