MEMORANDUM CIRCULAR
NO. 2007-15

TO : CITY AND MUNICIPAL MAYORS OF MANILA, MAKATI, MANDALUYONG, PASIG, TAGUIG, SAN JUAN AND PATEROS, DILG NCR REGIONAL DIRECTOR AND OTHERS CONCERNED

SUBJECT : 3RD PHILIPPINE MARATHON FOR THE PASIG RIVER

Proclamation No. 780, s. 2005, declared the month of February as the Philippine Marathon for the Pasig River Month. This annual event is considered as one of the biggest events in local sports and environmental advocacy.

This 42-km race is an official international marathon event. For this year's event, it will be held on February 25, 2007. The race will follow the route from the Old Manila's Fort Santiago to the Global City's Fort Bonifacio, passing through streets parallel to the historical Pasig River and across 11 of its 13 bridges.

In this connection, all concerned Local Chief Executives, are hereby encouraged to join this activity, or to send their representatives to the said event. The City and Municipal Mayors of Manila, Makati, Mandaluyong, Pasig, Taguig, San Juan and Pateros are requested to ensure the cleanliness of the route and the safety of all participants during the marathon proper.

For additional information, all interested participants may call Ms. Magdalena Gay C. Maddela, Project Director, Clean and Green Foundation, Inc. at Telephone Nos. (632) 527-6376 and (632) 527-6378 and Fax No. (632) 527-6379 or through e-mail address, cgfi@itextron.com.

For the information and guidance of all concerned.
