For this year, in line with the celebration of the National Statistics Month, with the theme: "Sustainable Development: Making Statistics Count", the Philippine Statistical System will conduct a National Convention on Statistics to provide a forum for exchanging ideas and experiences in the fields of statistics and to elicit the cooperation and support of statisticians and professionals in related fields from the government, academe and private sector towards a more responsive statistical system.

Relative thereto, this Department hereby enjoins all local authorities to observe the National Statistics Month by putting up NSM/NCS streamers or tarpaulins in their building façade throughout the month of October following a prescribed format from the Philippine Statistics Authority and distributing NSM promotional materials such as, but not limited to, calendar of activities and posters, provided by the NSM/NCS Secretariat in their website.
